To his own question, “Or those eighteen, upon whom the tower of Siloam fell, and slew them, think ye that they were sinners above all men that dwelt in Jerusalem?”

Jesus answered (Luke 13:4-5): See answer and explanation...

- A. No
- B. Yes
- C. Perhaps
- D. There is no way to tell

Answer: A - Jesus continues, “But unless you repent, you too will all perish.” In ancient times it was often assumed that tragedy hit those who were extremely sinful. Jesus is telling the crowds that tragedy is not necessarily a result of sin. It’s not a matter of someone ‘getting what they deserve!’ Post hoc ergo propter hoc. (after this, therefore because of this.)

Jesus said that many are called but few are _____.

Answer: chosen

Jesus said that many are called but few are chosen.

Reference: Matthew 22:1-14 “The Parable of the Wedding Feast”

The word “calling” is used several times throughout the Bible, in different contexts. In this instance Jesus is using the word “called” as an invitation. This parable is an analogy of what we have been invited to. An invitation to something more than a life lived serving only ourselves. An invitation to live a life together with Christ, serving God and experiencing the fulfillment that brings to life. An invitation to be Jesus’ disciples, to follow in His footsteps. And ultimately, an invitation to spend eternity with Him!

1/20/22

Jesus is our true priest and king. Who was the other priest king in the Bible?

Answer: Melchizedek.

Melchizedek appears to Abram in Genesis 14:18-20 as BOTH priest and king. Hebrews 7:2 translates the name Melchizedek as “king of righteousness” and Salem as “peace” so that Melchizedek is made to foreshadow Christ, stated to be the true king of righteousness and peace. Of course, Jesus fulfills both roles as the true Priest and true King.
